SUFFERING BOOMERS.

Hard Times for Waiting Thousands at the Strip.

Prostrations by the Heat--Negro Boomers Swindled.

Not Enough Clerks for the Business at the Registering Booths.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Sept. 14.--Twenty thousand people were yesterday added to the immense crowds on the line of the Cherokee Strip. The force of clerks at the registration booths is being increased, but work as hard as they will, the line grows larger instead of smaller. Supplies are running low and prices are going up. A hot wind has blown all day from the south, burning everything up and hurrying clouds of dust into the face and eyes of everybody. About twenty people, four or five of them women, fainting in line during the day, and several are dangerously ill from the effects of the heat.

A colony of several hundred negroes arrived yesterday, every one having a printed certificate granting him a farm of land upon his arrival and presentation of the same to the land office. These people were victims of some swindler who traveled through Louisiana, and sold them these certificates at $10 each. Other parties have arrived with tickets admitting them to a draw in the Cherokee strip land drawing, for which they have paid several dollars each.

A Hennessy yesterday a man from Kansas City was knocked down on the main street and robbed of $250.

It is estimated by conservative men that by Saturday there will be on the line to take part in the race about five persons for every claim on the strip.

At Orlando over 60 women have been in line for two days, and a special registering booth was opened for them yesterday afternoon. A large force of extra clerks are being hired, and from four to ten more booths will be opened at every registering point to-day.

Gov. Renfrow, in accordance with instructions from Washington last night, issued a proclamation instructing all Sheriffs to employ deputies enough to prevent all parties from carrying deadly weapons.

Eleven thousand certificates have been issued at Orlando in three days, and at 6 o'clock last night 6,500 people were in line, which will increase to 8,000 this morning. The people who registered yesterday numbered 2,600.

TRIAL DAY FOR ELLISON.

He Will Be Called Before Recorder Smyth Sept. 25.

Recorder Smyth, in Part III. of the General Sessions, this morning set Sept. 25 as the trial day for Frank Ellison. This is the day Ellison's counsel asked for yesterday.

Admirals were filed by the defendant and William H. Henriques, the complainant.

Ellison's affidavit stated that he had important and material witnesses, who were now out of the city. Without their evidence he alleged he could not fairly go to trial.

Henriques' affidavit stated that he was in a feeble and nervous condition, suffering continually from intense headache and vertigo and unable to walk without the assistance of a cane.

His physician had informed him that he was liable at any moment to succumb to apoplexy or nervous prostration. He therefore desired that his assistant's trial be fixed for an early date.

Mr. Henriques called upon Assistant Attorney-General John C. Sullivan and remained about one hour. It is said that they went over the evidence.

CAUGHT BY HIS CHAIN.

Skeleton of an Escaped Central Park Fox Found in Shrubbery.

In cleaning away the shrubbery on the Rugby Academy athletic grounds, Niney-second street and Central Park West, this morning workmen found the skeleton of a fox. It is believed to be one of those that escaped from the Park Menagerie several months ago.

Attached to the skeleton was a chain, which had caught in a thicket of bushes. The animal had evidently starved to death.

NEWELL SAYS NOT GUILTY.

The Park Policeman Accused of Extorting Blackmail.

Judge Fitzgerald, in Part I. General Sessions, this morning overruled the demurrer in the case of Alfred V. Newell, the park policeman who is under indictment for bribery and extortion.

THE REVOLT IN BRAZIL.

Advices that the Bombardment of Rio Has Begun.

Coffee Advances Three-Quarters of a Cent on the News.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.--Secretary Gresham has received the following cable from Minister Thompson at Rio, dated yesterday:

"At 11 this morning revolutionary forces bombarded forts commanding entrance harbor, also arsenal on wharf centre of city.

"A few shells were fired into the city and a woman was killed in her residence.

"Commercial telegrams have again been forbidden. Charleston has not yet arrived."

Advices to this same effect were published this morning, coming by way of London.

It was also stated that the garrison of the strongest fort at Rio had joined the rebels.

When the Coffee Exchange opened this morning the sole topic of conversation was the Brazilian trouble and its effect upon the market here.

Not a single broker or merchant had received the slightest information upon the subject.

The supply of coffee at this time is unusually small, and prices have already advanced 3-4 of a cent. per pound.

THE TROUBLE IN PRAGUE.

Police Disperse a Meeting of Young Czechs.

PRAGUE, Sept. 14.--Despite the prohibition by the Government of political banquets, 150 young Czechs, including several members of the Reichsrath, assembled in a restaurant on Sobieska street, and were dispersed by the police.

At the same time the police threatened to forcibly clear the place. Upon leaving the building they were greeted by the mob outside with derisive shouts of "Our members are the first to flee from bayonets."

In accordance with the imperial decree, issued yesterday, suspending articles 12 and 13 of the constitutional law in this city and its suburbs, five young Czech journals, the utterances of which were offensive to the Government, have been suspended.

THE KAISER LAUDED.

"First Servant of the State" and "Master of All Great Questions."

BERLIN, Sept. 14.--Miguel, Prussian Minister of Finance, proposing the health of Emperor William at a banquet at Odenbrunn, said that the Emperor had taken for his motto "The King is the first servant of the State."

"In the short period of his reign," said Dr. Miguel, "he has carried out great reforms. He is a man of the modern type. He is completely master of all the great questions of the present day, and is in sympathy with everything tending to progress."

He judiciously with an impartial eye all problems, and stands the centre of our National life. We may trust him to be the protector of the German people, and everything German, in a far greater measure than is acknowledged at the present moment."

FAULKNER'S CURRENCY PLAN.

Retirement of Small Bills and $800,000,000 Silver Coinage.

An Amendment by Some Regarded as the Coming Compromise.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.--Senator Faulkner will to-day offer in the Senate his amendment to the pending financial bill, to which he referred the other day in his speech. This amendment is based upon in some quarters as the possible solution of the present difficulty.

Mr. Faulkner's amendment withdraws from circulation all notes, save the legal tender greenbacks, of denominations less than $10 and substitutes in their stead silver coin, so that there can be no expansion of the currency except as provided in the further sections of his amendment. He believes that by the withdrawal of these notes silver dollars and $5 and $2.50 gold pieces will circulate alongside of each other in the ordinary course of trade.

He provides for the coinage of silver up to an aggregate of $800,000,000, and when that amount is reached the coinage of silver will cease absolutely.

The present aggregate of silver coin, including subsidiary coin, amounts to $615,000,000, so that the increase under the amendment will be $185,000,000.

It will be provided, first, that no more purchases of silver bullion shall be made until the seigniorage and bullion now in the Treasury, amounting to $3,000,000, have been coined.

This is to be done at the rate of $3,000,000 a month, and at this rate it will take more than three years to coin the bullion now in the Treasury.

The estimate being made, of course, on the coinage value of the bullion.

When that period has elapsed the Secretary is directed to buy silver and coin it at the same rate until the limit designated shall have been reached. Mr. Faulkner's bill will be amended to accomplish this will take about seven years.

According to the present program it is understood that after this amendment is introduced President Cleveland will be waited upon by a number of Senators who will represent the conservative element and will ask him to favor this as a compromise.

SUPT. PRESTON'S DEFENSE.

Why Brooklyn's Commercial Bank Was Not Closed Sooner.

ALBANY, Sept. 14.--Superintendent Charles M. Preston, of the State Banking Department, was asked to-day to reply to the charges of negligence in the handling of the Commercial Bank of Brooklyn, preferred by the depositors. Said he:

"I am willing to have my actions investigated at any time, but I do not want to have my case tried in the newspapers.

"I am with you, I do not know just what the depositors charge in this particular case. The Commercial Bank was examined by me last September, and then it was all right and had a small surplus.

"Every bank in the State is examined once a year, and whenever I find any deficiency, or an extra examination, I make one. We get four reports a year from all the banks, and whenever any of these indicate that anything is wrong an investigation is made.

"The last report from the Commercial Bank was made in June. It was all right, and I have no right. There has been a good deal of extra work this summer on account of the attendant business, and I have been unusually busy.

"The statements made in some of the papers that I have not been at my office, and the inference that I have neglected my duties are false, as any investigation will show."

The Committee of Five, representing the depositors of the suspended Commercial Bank of Brooklyn, will go to Albany to-morrow to consult Attorney General Sullivan as to the advisability of having an associate receiver appointed to represent the creditors.

While in Albany the committee will call upon Gov. Flower, and formally present charges against John C. Sullivan, who is charged with not closing the bank's doors long before it was forced to suspend.

Justice Sullivan, in the Supreme Court, this morning heard the application of the Forrester Burlesque Company, and the Fifth and Seventh National banks of New York, for an order directing John C. Sullivan to pay over to them $500.

Decision was reserved.

CELIA WESTON FOUND.

She Ran Away from Newark to Go on the Stage.

Eighteen-year-old Celia Weston, who disappeared from her home in Newark, N. J., eight months ago, has at last returned.

Some of her friends visited Coney Island three weeks ago and learned that Celia was a stage girl in one of the companies there. Her parents were notified, but when they arrived Celia had gone.

The reports of Saturday's fire at Bennett's Casino, in Brooklyn, Miss Weston's name appeared as a member of the Forrester Burlesque Company. Her parents went to Brooklyn, and last night met their missing daughter on Alabama avenue.

She refused to go home with them until she had secured a divorce from her husband, and given the choice of returning to Newark or going into a cell.
